Questions to Consider as You Read (for Our Monthly Discussion):

- What ideas or passages stood out or surprised you?
- Was there anything you found confusing or hard to agree with?
- How do Lewis’s arguments connect to your own life or experiences?
- Did you find a sentence or quote that you’d want to share or discuss?
- How do these chapters challenge or encourage your view of faith, God, or the world?
- Were there any practical takeaways or things you’d like to try applying?
- If you could ask C.S. Lewis a question about what you read, what would it be?
